

AMU CITY SCHOOL, ALIGARH

ANNUAL REPORT

(SESSION 2017 – 2018)

1. INTRODUCTION

The school started in 1889 in an old building by Maulana Bahadur Ali and his associates and was initially named as Anjuman-e-Islamia Primary School which later on became Mohammadan Anglo Oriental Collegiate, City Branch in 1919 and then became Muslim University City H School. The School then shifted to its present building in 1928.

Sahabzada Aftab Ahmad, Maulvi Samiullah Khan, Maulvi Abdul Khaliq, Deputy Habibullah Khan, Abdul Majeed Khwaja and Alhaj Obaidur Rehman Khan Sherwani are some of the prominent figures who were close associates of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan and contributed a lot to the establishment of the school. Maulana Tufail Ahmad Manglori was the first founder manager of the school. The school has been catering the educational needs of the Aligarh City population particularly belonging to under privileged, middle and lower middle classes of the society.

At present there are approximately 1504 students on school's roll. The school prepares students for Secondary & Senior Secondary School Certificate Examination conducted by Aligarh Muslim University Board. The school serves as the feeder institution of the University for higher education. The students are given tutorial/remedial class facility, counseling and preparation for National Talent Search Examination, Science and Mathematics Olympiad. Our students are also exposed to external environment through tour/excursion.

2. IMPORTANT EVENTS

a) Co-Curricular Activities

The School provided a variegated programme of co-curricular activities to develop the talents of the students and to channelize their potential in right direction. Essay Writing, Quiz, Bait Baazi, Speech and Debate competitions were also organized in connection with Republic Day, Independence Day, Sir Syed Day celebrations. In addition to this our students participated in Literary and Cultural competitions organized by University Schools and Halls of residence and won prizes. I would like to give a special mention that our students have been regularly participating in Seerat-e-Paak (SAW) competition conducted by AMU.
